Weekly News for North Cross Youth

No More Dinners For The Year

There are no more dinners scheduled for the remainder of the year. This allows the youth to enjoy some fun holiday events without the time restriction of the dinners and allows for other events use of the Fellowship Hall in December. Be sure to read the Youthtalk each week and confirm the time we begin each Wednesday. Some of our events will begin earlier than our regular 6:30 pm start time. This week, however, we are following our standard schedule of 6:30 pm to 8:15 pm.

Don't Forget Sign-Up Deadlines

Only one youth has signed up for WOW. The deadline for this event is December 9. And only one youth has indicated their choices for Snow Creek. The deadline to sign up for this event is December 20. Parents, we need at least 3 more parents who can be drivers/sponsors for the Crestview Scavenger Hunt on Wednesday, December 9. We also need several more drivers, one more host family, and several adults who would be willing to help the host families for the Progressive Dinner scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 16. Youth were reminded last week that these deadlines are not flexible. If we don't have youth and/or adult participation as needed, then the events may be cancelled or replaced with a regular Wednesday Youth Nite.

Another Successful Bluegrass Fundraiser

Three youth worked this past Friday at the Heart of America Bluegrass event. Each of them will have $60 credited to their fundraiser account for their evening of work. There are still spaces available to work future events. Priority will be given to youth who have not previously worked an event. This is a great opportunity to earn money for the mission trip and some of the other events we have planned in December and January. The sign-up sheet to work is posted on the bulletin board in the hallway to the youth room.

Sunday School Teachers Needed for Jan-March

The calendar for the youth Sunday school classes for January through March is being reviewed in the next couple of weeks. If you are a current teacher and plan to continue teaching through these months, please confirm your schedule with Vickie. New teachers will certainly be needed for 2010. If you are interested in teaching, have a speaker you feel would be of interest to the youth, or know another adult at North Cross you think would be a great youth Sunday school teacher, please let Vickie know as soon as possible so she can make the necessary contacts and plans to assure a great Sunday school experience for all youth.

Sunday School Program

This Sunday, Vickie will be leading both the mid-high and senior high groups. The topic will be based on the number of youth in attendance and upon the discussion at Wednesday Youth Nite. The plan for now is to have an informal discussion regarding some of the issues everyone is facing with school, family and friends and how we can support each other.

Wednesday Youth Nite

This Wednesday Matt Terrell will be taking leadership of the program. Next Wednesday is our "craft night" with the Kidzone group. We will be assisting the children in making crafts for a local nursing home.

See you
Wednesday

Dinner Menu
